

The Leaders of Russian Private Equity Market in 2010 Are Announced

Moscow, March 16, 2011. Private Equity Russia&CIS Journal (<http://www.percis.ru>). The leading Russian magazine on private equity investments Private Equity Russia & CIS Journal announced the winners of Russian Private Equity Leaders Award 2010.

Russian Private Equity Leaders Award 2010 was established to recognize and promote best achievements of firms and individuals in the field of private equity investments in Russia. The winners of the award were defined by readers of the journal and mass media AllEquityFunds through online voting. Totally 1703 votes were received. Representatives of almost all private equity funds in Russia, investment banks, advisors and other private equity market players took part in the voting. The factors that were recommended for choosing the best nominees were: professionalism and quality of work, reputation on the market and achieved results in 2010.

The winners were announced at the main private equity market event in Russia and the CIS - 7th C5 International Forum "Private Equity and Venture Capital in Russia and CIS".

"The success of the first private equity award in Russia confirms increasing interest and development of private equity market in the region." – said Igor Checkoun, Editor-in-chief of Private Equity Russia & CIS Journal. "The independent results of the award could be a good guideline for market players. We plan to develop the award next year and we invite funds, advisors and individuals to take part in our Russian Private Equity Leaders Award 2011 that will start at the end of the year".
